

The Wilson Home Trust

For Children with Physical Disabilities

www.wilsonhometruster.org.nz

We are offering subsidized workshops to let you be creative and have some fun. The Creativity Sessions are for Parents, Grandparents & Caregivers of children and young adults with physical disabilities, aged up to 22 years of age. The two hour sessions will include different creative adventures which will result in producing items that can be gifts or be kept to show off your creativity.

The first sessions will be Hand Building with Clay, no experience with clay is necessary.

The workshops will be run by Jill McNaughton who has been making pottery for 6 years. She is a member of the Auckland Studio Potters and helps run the kids holiday programmes. Jill taught for many years, full time & part time at Vauxhall Primary School, often specializing in art throughout the various age groups. She also has a background in Graphic Design where she worked for NSCSS working with Not for Profit Organisations designing logos, brochures. She also ran workshops for organisations, to be more effective with their inhouse designs for flyers, pamphlets etc.

Jill has a long history of creating her own art, oil & acrylic painting and as her family will attest, always has many creative pursuits going on, at the same time e.g. crochet, knitting, drawing, clay creations.

Jill has 3 grown up children, all of which went to Vauxhall, Belmont Intermediate & Takapuna Grammar School.
