Counselling Grant

ABOUT THE GRANT

The Counselling Grant is available for any family member who has a child with a physical disability and requires counselling or support that will enhance their wellbeing. This may include parents, carers, siblings, grandparents or the young person themselves. The maximum grant amount per application is $600.00 exclusive of GST ($690.00 inclusive of GST) You may choose your own counsellor.

Please note that we will not accept any retrospective applications (services that have already been paid for).

TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR A GRANT THE CHILD / YOUNG ADULT MUST:

- Have a disability that is primarily physical – Physical disabilities are those which primarily impair function of body and / or limbs. Additional sensory (vision, hearing) and intellectual (cognitive, behavioral, mental) disabilities may be present, but will not be the primary reason for the funds requested.
- The child or young person's disability needs to be described in terms of the impairments, activity limitations and / or participation restrictions, as per the terms used by the World Health Organization: "Disabilities is an umbrella term, covering impairments, activity limitations, and participation restrictions. An impairment is a problem in body function or structure; an activity limitation is a difficulty encountered by an individual in executing a task or action; while a participation restriction is a problem experienced by an individual in involvement in life situations". (<https://www.who.int/topics/disabilities/en/>). Causes may include a range of medical diagnoses, congenital or acquired.
- Be younger than 22 years
- Live in the northern half of the North Island of New Zealand (as defined by the Trust Deed).
- The family has a need for financial assistance.

Ethnicity: We request information in the application form about the child / young adult's ethnicity because we are required to report on ethnicity ensuring there is a focus on Maori and Pacific communities to reduce health inequities.
